

START STRONG | TEACH STRONG | STAY STRONG

Starting out as a CTE teacher can be overwhelming—but you don't have to do it alone. The KCCTE Mentoring Program provides structured coaching, curriculum guidance, and professional development to give you the support you need now—not months from now. You'll get personalized support, practical ideas, and someone to lean on who's been in your shoes. Whether it's classroom management, curriculum help, or just knowing what to expect, we're here to help you grow with confidence. It's a no-pressure, flexible way to get the support you deserve from people who truly get it.

START STRONG

- ✓ One-on-one coaching just for you
- ✓ A mentor who's been in your shoes
- ✓ Quick solutions for classroom management & CTSOs

TEACH STRONG

- ✓ Lesson and curriculum support tied to industry standards
- ✓ Access to the KCCTE Resource Library
- ✓ FREE KCCTE professional development*
(*Some supplies and fees may still apply.)

STAY STRONG

- ✓ Boosted confidence in your teaching
- ✓ A safe space to ask questions anytime
- ✓ Ongoing encouragement from mentors and consultants who understand your journey

BUILD STRONG CONNECTIONS

Don't struggle alone—reach out to KCCTE faculty and staff ... we've got your back!

- Dr. Greg Belcher - gbelcher@pittstate.edu
- Dr. Julie Dainty - jdainty@pittstate.edu
- Dr. Kevin Elliott - kellott@pittstate.edu
- Dr. Jon Jones - jon.jones@pittstate.edu
- Dr. Kelley Manley - kmanley@pittstate.edu
- Tracey Eagon - teagon@pittstate.edu
- Morgan Prather - mprather@pittstate.edu
- Barb Zimmerman - bazimmerman@pittstate.edu